PROFILE

I am a Computer Engineering graduate from Pokhara University (2026) with hands-on experience in both Full Stack Development and AI/ML Engineering. I have worked on building one of Nepal's few open-source NLP tools for the Nepali language, which is spoken by over 17 million people but has very limited computational tooling available. I am IBM-certified in AI Fundamentals and have completed internships covering Full Stack, AI/ML, and WordPress and SEO. I enjoy building things that solve real problems and am always looking to grow through meaningful work.
